

Dragging Pains

2835 Keeley St.,
Chicago, Ill., Oct., 2, 1902.
I suffered with falling and congestion of the womb, with severe pains through the groin. I suffered terribly at the time of menstruation, had blinding headaches and rushing of blood to the brain. What to try I knew not, for it seemed that I had tried all and failed, but I had never tried Wine of Cardui, that blessed remedy for sick women. I found it pleasant to take and soon knew that I had the right medicine. New blood seemed to course through my veins and after using eleven bottles I was a well woman.

Maudie Bush
Mrs. Bush is now in perfect health because she took Wine of Cardui for menstrual disorders, bearing down pains and blinding headaches when all other remedies failed to bring her relief. Any sufferer may secure health by taking Wine of Cardui in her home. The first bottle convinces the patient she is on the road to health.

IRONTON NEWS.

Spring will soon be with us. Wood is high, but ice is cheap. Ironton School is closed for two weeks, spring vacation. The log harvest is about completed, and our boys are returning from the woods.

Dr. Lewis was called to attend a case of "Michigan itch".

Miss Kate MacDonald is teaching a successful term of school in District No. 5.

Our tax collector has retired for another year. He reports collections good.

The Republican State League, is flooding our town with Primary Reform literature.

Stearns and reform. Consistency where art thou?

In the fire which destroyed Mr. Burdick's residence, store, and hall, the Ironton Grange lost its organ and all implements, and the County Pomona Grange its regalia and all paraphernalia recently purchased.

Robert Miller, who has been dangerously ill since last December, will soon be able to resume his duties as superintendent of the poor. Bob is out shaking hands with his friends, and says he is not quite ready for his pail bearers yet, by gracious!

SOUTH ARI.

Mrs. Wm. Brant and Miss Bertha Kake are on the sick list, while Mrs. Henry Gee is slowly recovering from her severe illness.

Chas. Locke came up from Deward, and Sundayed with his family.

Mrs. Lon' Bhelden is vastly improved in health and is expected home next week from Grand Rapids.

Mr. and Mrs. J. R. Vance, who have been wintering in Georgia have returned to their home in Mitchell, Antrim County.

Change in Management.

George H. Waltensperger and William E. Bolles, who have been connected with the Detroit Free Press for many years, have resigned to take charge of the Twentieth Century Review, an illustrated monthly home magazine published in Detroit. Mr. Waltensperger is the advertising manager, and Mr. Bolles is the managing editor. The magazine is now completing its fourth year and has the largest number of subscribers among the publications of its class in Michigan, the monthly circulation being 10,000 copies. Mr. Waltensperger has been connected with the business department of the Free Press for twenty years. He is widely known as a hustling, wide-awake, progressive advertising man. Mr. Bolles has been a member of the editorial staff of the Free Press for seven years. He has published a number of popular short stories, and is the author of the amusing "Get Rich Quick Club" burlesques.

MICHIGAN'S FARM JOURNAL.

The Michigan Farmer, Detroit. Michigan is the only weekly agricultural, horticultural or live-stock paper published in the State. It is published solely in the interests of the farmers of Michigan and appeals to Michigan people as no other farm publication can. It is practical and up-to-date and employs the most eminent writers on the science and practice of agriculture, horticulture, dairying, poultry, etc. It has a standard veterinary department for free treatment of all diseases of farm animals. It contains complete and reliable reports from all market centers and gives the agricultural news of the country and an invaluable literary and household department every week.

The publishers are offering to send The Michigan Farmer postage paid for only 60c for 1 year or $1.00 for 2 years. Here is a great opportunity for our readers who care to keep in touch with the conditions, prospects of crops, etc., not only in our own State, but in other States as well. The small price asked for this large 20 page farm weekly brings it within the means of every farmer to keep in touch with what others are doing in their same line of business.

Send to The Michigan Farmer, Detroit, Michigan, for a free sample copy and see if it is not just what you want.

The Rev. Irl R. Hicks Almanac for 1904 is now ready. It will be mailed to any address for 30 cents. It is surprising how such an elegant, costly book can be sent prepaid so cheaply. No family or person is prepared to study the heavens, or the storms and weather in 1904, without this wonderful Hicks Almanac and Prof. Hicks' splendid paper, WORD AND WORKS. Both are sent for only ONE DOLLAR A YEAR. WORD AND WORKS is among the best American Magazines. Like the Hicks Almanac, it is too well to need further commendation. Few men have labored more faithfully for the public good or found a warmer place in the hearts of the people. Send orders to WORD AND WORKS PUBLISHING CO., 2201 Locust St., St. Louis Mo.

A NEW BLOCK.

Every town is hustling for new industries—canning factories, wood-working establishments, shops, mills, or something of that kind. This place now has the promise of a fine 10 story brick block. Hurrah! John C. Wright, editor of The Lyre (Liar) magazine, Petoskey, Mich., agrees to build a large branch office here if he can get enough people to subscribe for his publication. As soon as our citizens take an interest in the matter he will draw up the plans and commence to figure on it. He doesn't ask one cent of bonus, exemption from taxation, or anything of that kind. It will simply be a gift to the city same as a Carnegie library. The lying business is always good and a building of that kind would be an ornament to our town and besides one is needed here. The Lyre is $1 per year and a rip roarer. Leading papers say it is one of the most unique, interesting and original publications in America. It has lately been improved in numerous ways and doubled in size. Every one ought to take it. The Lyre licenses with which the subscribers are provided are great.

A THOUSAND DOLLARS THROWN AWAY.

Mr. W. W. Baker of Plainville, Neb., writes: "My wife had lung trouble for over fifteen years. We tried a number of doctors and spent over a thousand dollars without any relief. She was very low and I lost all hope, when a friend suggested trying Foley's Honey and Tar, which I did; and thanks be to this great remedy, it saved her life. She is stronger and enjoys better health than she has ever known in ten years. We shall never without Foley's Honey and Tar and would ask those afflicted to try it." Sold by L. C. Madison.

FOLEY'S KIDNEY CURE

Makes Kidneys and Bladder Right

READ THE STORY OF MICHIGAN IN PEARSON'S MAGAZINE FOR FEBRUARY

DAVID S. BARRY has told the history of Michigan concisely, accurately and dramatically. No State has a story more romantic.

DO YOU KNOW that PEARSON'S entertains more than 1,250,000 people every month?

Features like the following explain its popularity:

Modern Methods of "Finance" by Henry George, Jr.
President Roosevelt, at Concord, N. H., August 25th, 1902, said: "About all we have a right to expect from Government is that it will see that the cards are not stacked." He was referring to the great industrial combinations.
With a view to showing the methods pursued in the organization and manipulation of many of the great industrial combinations, PEARSON'S will publish a series of articles by Henry George, Jr., the Annapolis, Indiana, and Manipulation of Copper being the theme of the first two articles. The Asphalt - asphalt - is to be the third.
Indian Fights and Fighters, 1813-1903, by Cyrus Townsend Brady. Illustrated by SCHIRVING.
Presenting an authentic, brilliant and thrilling history of frontier tragedies, including Custer's successful attack upon Black Kettle, Custer's Fatal Defeat at the Little Big Horn, Forsyth's Famous Fight on the Aricaire, the story of Fetter's capture and defense of Pine Island, the massacre of Fetter's Command, Custer's Campaign, Wheaton's Campaign, in the Lava Beds of Oregon.
Tom Nast, Cartoonist.
Gen. U. S. Grant said he considered Tom Nast the greatest single figure that had come out of the Civil War. Mr. Albert Bigelow Paine has prepared for PEARSON'S a series of articles from scrap books and memoranda given to him by Tom Nast shortly before his death. This most important set of papers, which includes the Overthrow of the Tweed Ring, the Civil War Period, the Horrors of Slavery, the Reconstruction Period, the Greeley Presidential Campaign, and many other articles presenting vivid pictures of the life of the Black Pope, the making, will shortly appear.
Monsieur A. V. resumes
Following is the schedule thus far planned: "The Race of the Downright Empire; the Abduction of Francis Joseph; the Death of Queen Victoria; King Edward's Tour; the Black Pope; The Secret History of Panama."
The author still insists that his identity must remain a secret.

SOMETHING ABOUT BOOKS AND BOOK-BARGAINS

Passed Stone and Gravel With Excruciating Pains

A. H. Thurnes, Mgr. Willis Creek Coal Co., Buffalo, O., writes: "I have been afflicted with kidney and bladder trouble for years, passing gravel or stones with excruciating pains. Other medicines only gave relief. After taking FOLEY'S KIDNEY CURE the result was surprising. A few doses started the brick dust, like fine stones, etc., and now I have no pain across my kidneys and I feel like a new man. FOLEY'S KIDNEY CURE has done me $1,000 worth of good."

No Other Remedy Can Compare With It

Thos. W. Carver, of Ashboro, N. C., had Kidney Trouble and one bottle of FOLEY'S KIDNEY CURE effected a perfect cure, and he says there is no remedy that will compare with it.
